

Hara Saraskeri

Human Capital Consulting Senior Consultant

Outplacement Services Lead and Senior Human Capital Consultant at ICAP.

Hara is a Senior Consultant at ICAP Human Capital Consulting. With 14 years of experience in Human Resources she has developed strong skills in project scoping, data analysis, delivering high-quality results, and collaborating with diverse teams and stakeholders. Highly familiar with several HR fields specific in Workplace Culture, Change Management, Internal Communication and Training schemes.

Participated in special human resources projects such as Culture Transformation she was accountable for supporting engagement and loyalty actions for employees in times of corporate change like run surveys, focus groups, action planning. Planned and realized initiatives to enhance a contemporary, inclusive and healthy work environment. Moreover, she is a communication expert in aspect of design communication campaign and event management.

Holds a Bachelor degree in Business Management from University of Sunderland, UK. Also, has a Hogan Assessments Certification on its psychometric tools. She has a total 18 years working experience at a leading banking organization in Greece.

Her goal is to contribute to the success of her clients by providing innovative and tailored solutions for their human capital needs..